RULES

for the regulation of the

RAYMOND PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Adopted in Town Meeting April 4th 1881.

I. This Library shall be called the "Raymond Public Library."

II. The Library shall be open every Saturday from two until four and from seven until eight o'clock P.M. excepting such Saturdays as shall be observed as Legal Holidays

III. Every resident of the Town of Royalston, twelve years old and upward, shall be entitled to the use of the Library on subscribing to the following agreement, viz: "I hereby certify that I am a resident of the Town of Royalston, and, in consideration of the right to use the "Raymond Public Library" agree to comply with the Regulations that are or may be provided for its government." Visitors to be over and non-residents shall be allowed the use of the Library on subscribing to an agreement similar to the foregoing, and giving the Librarian security, or otherwise assuring him regarding due compliance with the Regulations.

IV. Persons entitled to take books from the Library may receive from the Librarian a printed Card having upon it the name of the applicant and the number of his or her page in the Ledger. Hereby order obtaining a book will be by the presentation of this Card upon which has been written the number or numbers of the books wanted and in the order of their preference; and the first book indicated which may be in, will be delivered. Each Card shall be furnished by the Librarian at cost and shall be considered an Order from the person to whom it belongs when presented by any other person.

V. Any person entitled to take books from the Library may have the privilege of a volume at a time to be retained not more than two weeks; but the Trustees may specify a shorter time for the retention of new or special works. A book may be retaken once, but not more than once, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full Library Day.

VI. Books when not properly used may be withheld from any person at the discretion of the Librarian.

VII. A fine of ten cents shall be assessed on every book for each Library Day it is kept out beyond the time specified, payable on its return. No book shall be given out to any person from whom a fine is due. No pen or pencil marks shall be made in books. Persons taking books shall be held responsible for them, both for their injury or loss; and when a set is broken by the loss of one volume, the responsibility shall extend to the whole set.

VIII. Books of reference and unbound periodicals cannot be taken away from the rooms of the Library.

IX. No person except the Librarian and the Trustees shall be allowed to take books from the shelves.

X. All books must be returned to the Library on or before the twenty fifth of December under penalty of a fine of fifty cents. The Library will be closed for that day a sufficient length of time for the purpose of an annual examination.

XI. Upon every book that shall be presented to the Library a label shall be placed stating the name of the giver and the date of presentation.

XII. A book shall be kept at the Library in which any person entitled to take books may enter the title of any book that he may desire to have purchased for the Library; but the Trustees shall not be obliged to purchase books so suggested unless they think it proper to do so.

XIII. All persons visiting the rooms of the Library must demean themselves with propriety while there, and avoid all unnecessary conversation, otherwise they will be denied the privilege of the Library rooms.

XIV. The Librarian shall keep the Library rooms with their appurtenances in good order and cause them warmed and lighted at the time specified in Art. I.

He shall record in a book kept for that purpose the title of each book purchased, the date of purchase and the number applied to that book. He shall cover each book and attach to it a printed label bearing the name of the Library and the number of the book. He shall enter in a book kept for the purpose the number of each book delivered by him, the time when given out, the name of the person to whom it is delivered or by whom it is ordered, and the date when each book is returned to the Library. He shall keep an accurate account of all penalties incurred and paid, when and by whom, and shall pay the amount annually to the Treasurer of the Library on or before the first of March. He shall carefully examine the account of each person on the first days of January, April, July and October, and ascertain all neglects in the due return of books and shall forthwith notify all delinquent persons of their neglect, and if such

1895 November Meeting Precinct No. 3

Persuant to the foregoing Warrant the Inhabitants of Precinct two (2) qualified to vote in the Law directs assembled at the time and place and for the purpose therein expressed

At 9.30 A.M. the Warrant was read by the Warden Caleb H Day. The Warden detailed the Deputy Inspectors Arthur C Kendall and John Holligan to act as Ballot Clerks. The Warden then publicly opened the Ballot Box and the same having been personally examined by the Election Officers and the public was found empty. The Ballot Box was immediately locked the register indicating (000) and the key of the Box was taken and retained by Frank N Dyer the Constable in attendance. The seals of the Package containing the Official Ballots were then publicly broken and they were delivered to the Ballot Clerks. Said Package was marked to contain two Hundred Ballots and was found by count to contain that number. The Warden then forthwith sent a receipt of the delivery to him of said Ballots to the Town Clerk. Cards of Instructions and Specimen Ballots were then posted in each voting compartment and in and about the polling room as the Law directs

On motion of Isac L Rice seconded by John R Hale it was voted to close the polls at 4 o'clock P M.

The polls were closed at four o'clock P M as voted

The Officers in charge of the check List in the presence of the other Officers and the public counted in a distinct and audible voice the names checked on each list and announced the whole number of male names checked to be fifty two (52) and the whole number of Female names none (0) The Ballots in the Ballot Box were then under the direction of the Warden taken from the Ballot Box and were audibly counted one by one and the Warden announced publicly the whole number cast to be fifty two (52)

The number of undistributed Ballots was one hundred forty eight
The number of cancelled Ballots was - none
The Precinct Officers then proceeded to divide the Votes into sheets of fifty each and to count the number of Votes received by each person voted for with the following result Viz-

Laying out of Town Way Dec 4 1897

On the 18th day of Sept 1897, upon the Petition of E H Davenport and others, the Subscribers, the Selectmen of the Town of Royalston proceeded to locate and lay out a Town Way in the Village of South Royalston in said Royalston, as herein after described, seven days notice in writing having been given previous to the date of laying out, to all persons over whose land the proposed Town Way passed, as the law directs Beginning at a drill hole in a stone monument near the South west corner of land of Richard Moore; thence S. 22° W. one hundred and fifty and one half feet (150.5) to a drill hole in a stone monument near the Barn of Fred W. Cross; thence S. 25°-40'-00" W. one hundred feet (100) to a drill hole in a stone monument and thence continuing on in the same course about sixty five feet to the line of the road leading past the Riverside Cemetery, so called.

Said Town Way is laid out twenty feet (20) wide and is located on the westerly side of the above described lines, and we award to said Fred W. Cross the sum of fifty dollars as damages, he to remove two trees from land to be taken from him, if he so desires, and we award no damages to any other persons and no damages are claimed by them.

Resolutions on the John N. Bartlett fund as adopted by the Citizens in Town Meeting assembled March 6, 1899.

Whereas — The town of Royalston, on account of the loss by fire of the Mills at the south village and the natural decrease of population characteristic of the hill towns of New England is feeling more sensibly, in these later years the burden of taxation, and Whereas —

Our respected fellow citizen, John N. Bartlett, recognizing the fact and cherishing at the same time benevolent sentiments towards those unfortunate ones who must legally look to us for their support, has donated to this town the magnificent sum of twenty thousand dollars, to be held by us forever for the support of our poor. Therefore, resolved — that in accepting this remarkable gift with the conditions imposed, we desire, in the most heartfelt manner, to express our appreciation of the kindly feeling of the generous donor towards his native town. Resolved, that we gratefully acknowledge the benevolent purpose and evident sympathy for the distressed that actuated the giver and that we rejoice that during his lifetime he was willing that this noble gift should be doing its blessed and philanthropic work.

Resolved, that — these resolutions be spread by the clerk upon the records of the proceedings of the day, that they be published in various News papers in the county and that a copy of these

NOTE.

The adjournment above recorded took place, on account of the appearance of several cases of Small Pox and Varioloid at South Royalston, and the uncertainty as to whether the quarantine of fourteen individuals, which was promptly established by the Board of Health, had included all those originally exposed to the disease. It was considered the part of prudence, for a time, to avoid large gatherings where "suspects" might be present and unwittingly promote the spread of the Epidemic. F.H.A.

Agreement & Release.

George Whitney Woolen Co. with the Town of Royalston

This agreement made this first day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred and two, by and between the George Whitney Woolen Co. a Corporation duly established and having a place of business in Royalston in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, party of the first part and the Town of Royalston in said Commonwealth, party of the second part, —

Witnesseth: —

That, whereas, there now exists, and for a long time has existed, a canal or race way, leading from the dam of said party of the first part westerly to its factory, to conduct the water from said dam to the water wheels of said party of the first part; —

And, whereas, after the construction of said canal, a public way was laid out accepted and constructed extending southerly from a previously existing road across and over said Canal to and across Miller's River to the Railroad Station at South Royalston, and in the construction of said way, abutments at the sides of said Canal and a Bridge over said Canal were built, which said abutments and bridge, the said Town of Royalston is bound to keep in repair and maintain; —

And, whereas, the said party of the first part desires to alter said Canal or raceway and the said Town of Royalston desires to be relieved of the duty or obligation to maintain said abutments and bridge; —

Now, therefore, the said party of the first part, in consideration of the premises and of the agreement hereinafter contained on the part of said party of the second part to be done and performed does hereby covenant and agree to and with said party of the second part; — that it will lay in said canal in the central part of said road a section of water pipe constructed of steel one half inch thick, thoroughly riveted and twenty five feet long and nine feet in diameter and will connect the easterly end of the same with the leway of said dam by a pipe of the same diameter extending terly beyond the limits of said way; - that it will put in a an hole or opening in said pipe within the limits of said ad and on the westerly side thereof of sufficient diameter conveniently receive the suction hose of a fire engine, and meet such opening with a pipe of 6" diameter brought the surface of the road and provided with a proper covering cap, and will allow and hereby gives the said party of the ond part, its fire department and any fire company ning a fire engine and located in said Town of Royston a right to take water from said opening at all mes when necessary in case of fire and at reasonable mes for practice; - that it will remove the logs of said butments so that the same shall not obstruct or interfere ith the proper working of said road and will fill the id canal with earth and gravel for said width of twenty et feet between said nine foot pipe and the abutments said bridge; thoroughly tamp said filling to a point up the middle of said pipe and thoroughly puddle the whole said filling, and bring the grade of said road to a oint about one foot higher than the top of the planking it now is at the north side of the bridge, and carry the ade of said road at a reasonably true grade each way ll it meets the present grade of the road; - that it will a trench from the stone drain or sewer now discharging to said Canal southerly to said Millers River and lay erein a glazed sewer pipe of not less than eighteen inches diameter and connect said pipe with said stone drain a quarter bend and lay the pipe at a true grade, and rry the sewer pipe over the said nine foot pipe so that e water from said stone drain shall discharge into said wer, back fill the trench, puddle the filling to a point six inches ver said sewer pipe, and thoroughly tamp the back filling that the same shall not settle or cave; that it will do l the work hereinbefore set forth in a thorough and workman e manner, under the inspection and to the satisfaction the Selectmen of said Town of Royalston; -

And that, from and after the time when the

said party of the first part begins the work hereinbefore set forth, the said party of the second part shall be and hereby is released from any and all obligations to the party of the first part to maintain said Canal, the bridge over the canal and the abutments; and that it will forever maintain the pipe across said road or fill space occupied by said pipe across said road.

And said party of the second part in consideration of the premises and the covenants and agreements hereinbefore contained on the part of said party of the first part to be done and performed, hereby covenants and agrees to and with said party of the first part, that upon the completion of the work hereinbefore set forth at any time within nine months from the date hereof, it will pay said party of the first part for the same and for the release herein before set forth the sum of seven hundred dollars.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto, the said George Whitney Woollen Company, by George E. Whitney, its treasurer thereto duly authorized, and the said Town of Royalston, by Millard W. White, Sylvander B. Forristall and Luke B. Shepardson, its Selectmen, thereto duly authorized have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and date first above written.

A Committee to draft a set of Resolutions for acceptance at this Meeting expressing the thanks and appreciation of the Town for this additional gift.

1903 March Meeting

RESOLUTIONS,

subsequently reported, and adopted by the Town by a unanimous vote, were as follows; —

Whereas,

Our esteemed fellow citizen, John M. Bartlett, in the year 1899 donated to this Town a fund of twenty thousand dollars, the income of which was to be perpetually devoted to the support of the Poor of the Town of Royalston, and Whereas, the said John M. Bartlett has this day supplemented that gift with another generous sum which has increased his Fund to a total of twenty six thousand dollars, the donor evidently expecting that the revenue therefrom shall be sufficient to completely and forever hereafter meet all bills incurred on account of the Poor of Royalston, therefore, that we gratefully acknowledge this renewed expression on the part of the generous donor, of his beneficent regard for the Poor, and his continued interest in the financial welfare of his native Town, and that we trust that the consciousness of having been the founder of this noble charity, so long to endure, and so long to minister to human need, may serve to brighten and cheer his closing years, which we trust may be long in the land.

Resolved,

Resolved,

that a copy of these Resolutions be sent by the Town Clerk to Mr John M. Bartlett, and that they become a part of the record of the proceedings of this Meeting.

Report of the Precinct Clerk.

At 9.30 A.M. the Warrant was read by C.W. Da
the Warden he having been duly sworn by E.B. Hanson, J.P.

After the qualifying of the Precinct Officers, the Warden then publicly opened the Ballot Box and the same having been publicly examined by the Election Officers and others was found to be empty. It was then immediately locked the register indicating 0-0-0. The Key of the Ballot Box was taken and retained by E.G. Beals, Special Officer at the Polls.

The seals of the package containing the ballots were then publicly broken and they were delivered to the ballot Clerk. Said package was marked to contain one hundred and fifty ballots and on counting was found to contain one hundred and fifty ballots. The Clerk handed a receipt to Frank W. Adams for the delivery of the ballot box and ballots, Cards of Instructions, and Specimen ballots were then posted in each compartment for voting and also in and about the voting room as the law directs. On motion duly recorded it was voted to close the polls at four o'clock P.M. The Officers in charge of the Check List in the presence of the other officers and the public counted in a distinct and audible voice the names checked on each list and announced the whole number of names checked on each list to be fifty six (56).

The Warden appointed as Tellers A.R. Hale, C.H. Brooks.

The register on the ballot box was found to stand at close of voting 56. The ballots in ballot box were then under the direction of the Warden taken from the ballot box and audibly counted one by one and the Warden publicly announced the whole number cast to be fifty six.

The number of names checked and announced was fifty six.

The number of undistributed ballots was ninety four.

The number of cancelled ballots was none. The number of defective ballots was one. The Precinct Officers then proceeded to divide the ballots into blocks of fifty and to count the number of votes received by each person voted for with the following result. The votes were received, sorted,
